

RHA / SUPPORTING LOCAL

What is the foundational economy?

In a civilised society, people need a certain standard of basic services and products to live. This range of services and products is called the foundational economy and covers areas such as housing, food, care and health services, energy, retailers, construction and tourism. It's up to us all to help keep the local foundational economy strong and healthy to improve local lives.

RHA

📍 RHA, 9 Compton Road, Tonypany, CF40 1BE

☎ 01443 424200

📱 @RHAWales

🌐 rhawales.com